Thirty-Four Kansas School Chums Meet

By ADALINE CORTEZ

Two talented young girls, Mary Louise Payne and Patsy Kelly, are happily aware of the time

W. 160th St.; Patsy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kelly, 17220 Della Ave.

The high spirits of two local couples, Mr. and Mrs. Reese Holbrook, 17612 Cerise Ave., and Mr. and Mrs. Al Pesola, 17030 Faysmith Ave., were not dampened by Saturday's weather. The Holbrooks attended a dance at the Elks Club in Redondo Beach sponsored by the National Supply Co. Club. Helen looked very, very chic, dressed in black. The Pesolas attended the Annual Fall affair of the Hughes Aircraft Accounting Department at the Westport Beach Club. The decorations followed a football theme and the mood was that of a winning team. Another couple is ready to don slacks and jeans and follow the beaten path of the thousands of students. Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Cook, 2106 W. 160th St., are also ready to go.

It takes the young and hardy to brave a date as ominous as Friday 13 and throw a party! Ronnie and Gary Haygen, 16718 Ermanita Ave., hosted sixteen of their friends at a party designed to thrill the teenager. Winners of a scavenger hunt were Richard Hamilton and Richard Waters. Dancing held the spotlight for the evening—at least until Mrs. Hayden served refreshments. Lots of birthday parties this week! By natural right, as he was born first, we will start by toasting about the birthday dinner honoring K. P. Myers, 18102 Hawthorne Ave., on his birthday. His 11-year-old daughter, Charlotte, baked a chocolate cake and in being signed the names of the Myers' five children. Seven friends were present to celebrate the occasion. Canasta followed dinner. On down the age list we find little Karen Loy, 17504 Ermanita, who celebrated her third birthday in the company of friends, Maria and Randy Eagle, Tina and Duke Cortez, Judy Towell, and Lorrie Gastelum. Each celebrant had a tiny angel food cake with his name and a candle on it. The hole was filled with cream. Favors were airplanes and doll sets. Even though she cried when friends sang "Happy Birthday" to her, two-year-old Janis Paragulla, regained her composure in time to save the day and blow out her candles. The voices that so offended little Janis belonged to Steven, Doug, Diana and Linda Knoch; Robin and Stephen Smith; Janet Tiberg, and Mike Paragulla. A pink, lavender and white theme was carried out in balloons, favors and cake. Complete with a coverall suit patched with a caution, "Don't Saunt," Tommy Johnson is prepared to tackle the next year of life with all the enthusiasm of a one-year-old. He celebrated the first birthday with a family party at the home of his parents, Burt and Betty Johnson, 17219 Alkinson Ave.

Clair Seigrist, 16818 Faysmith Ave. The occasion was a baby shower for the baby boy of Mrs. Seigrist's sister-in-law, Mrs. Hester Daniels. It was held in the bamboo-decorated rumpus room of the Seigrist home. Friends and neighbors of Wanda and Bud Hart, 4143 W. 181st St., are enchanted with the couple's new baby, Penny Lee, who is reportedly not "shrivelled up like a new baby."

The Jack Whites, 4308 W. 178th Pl., motored to San Diego with Mrs. Bessie A. White, Jack's mother, who was here from Oakland to visit her grandson, Donald Huffman. Donald completes boot camp this week. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, 17025 Faysmith Ave., have as guests Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Joiner of Covina. The Joiners are Mrs. Smith's parents and are enroute home from Mexico.
